SPX + Investors Intelligence Poll (newsletters)

03/27: Investors Intelligence. Bulls% was lower at 30.1%. Bears% is higher at 41.7%. First week that Bears exceed Bulls since early Jan 2019. Historically this has usually marked a low in a bull market or the start of a rally in a bear market.

06/19: Investors Intelligence. Bulls% was lower at 54.9%. Bears% was lower at 18.6%. The nett (Bulls minus Bears) is at 36.3 which is neutral; it fell to -11.6 twelve weeks ago, the lowest since Feb '16.

SP500 Index (Daily)

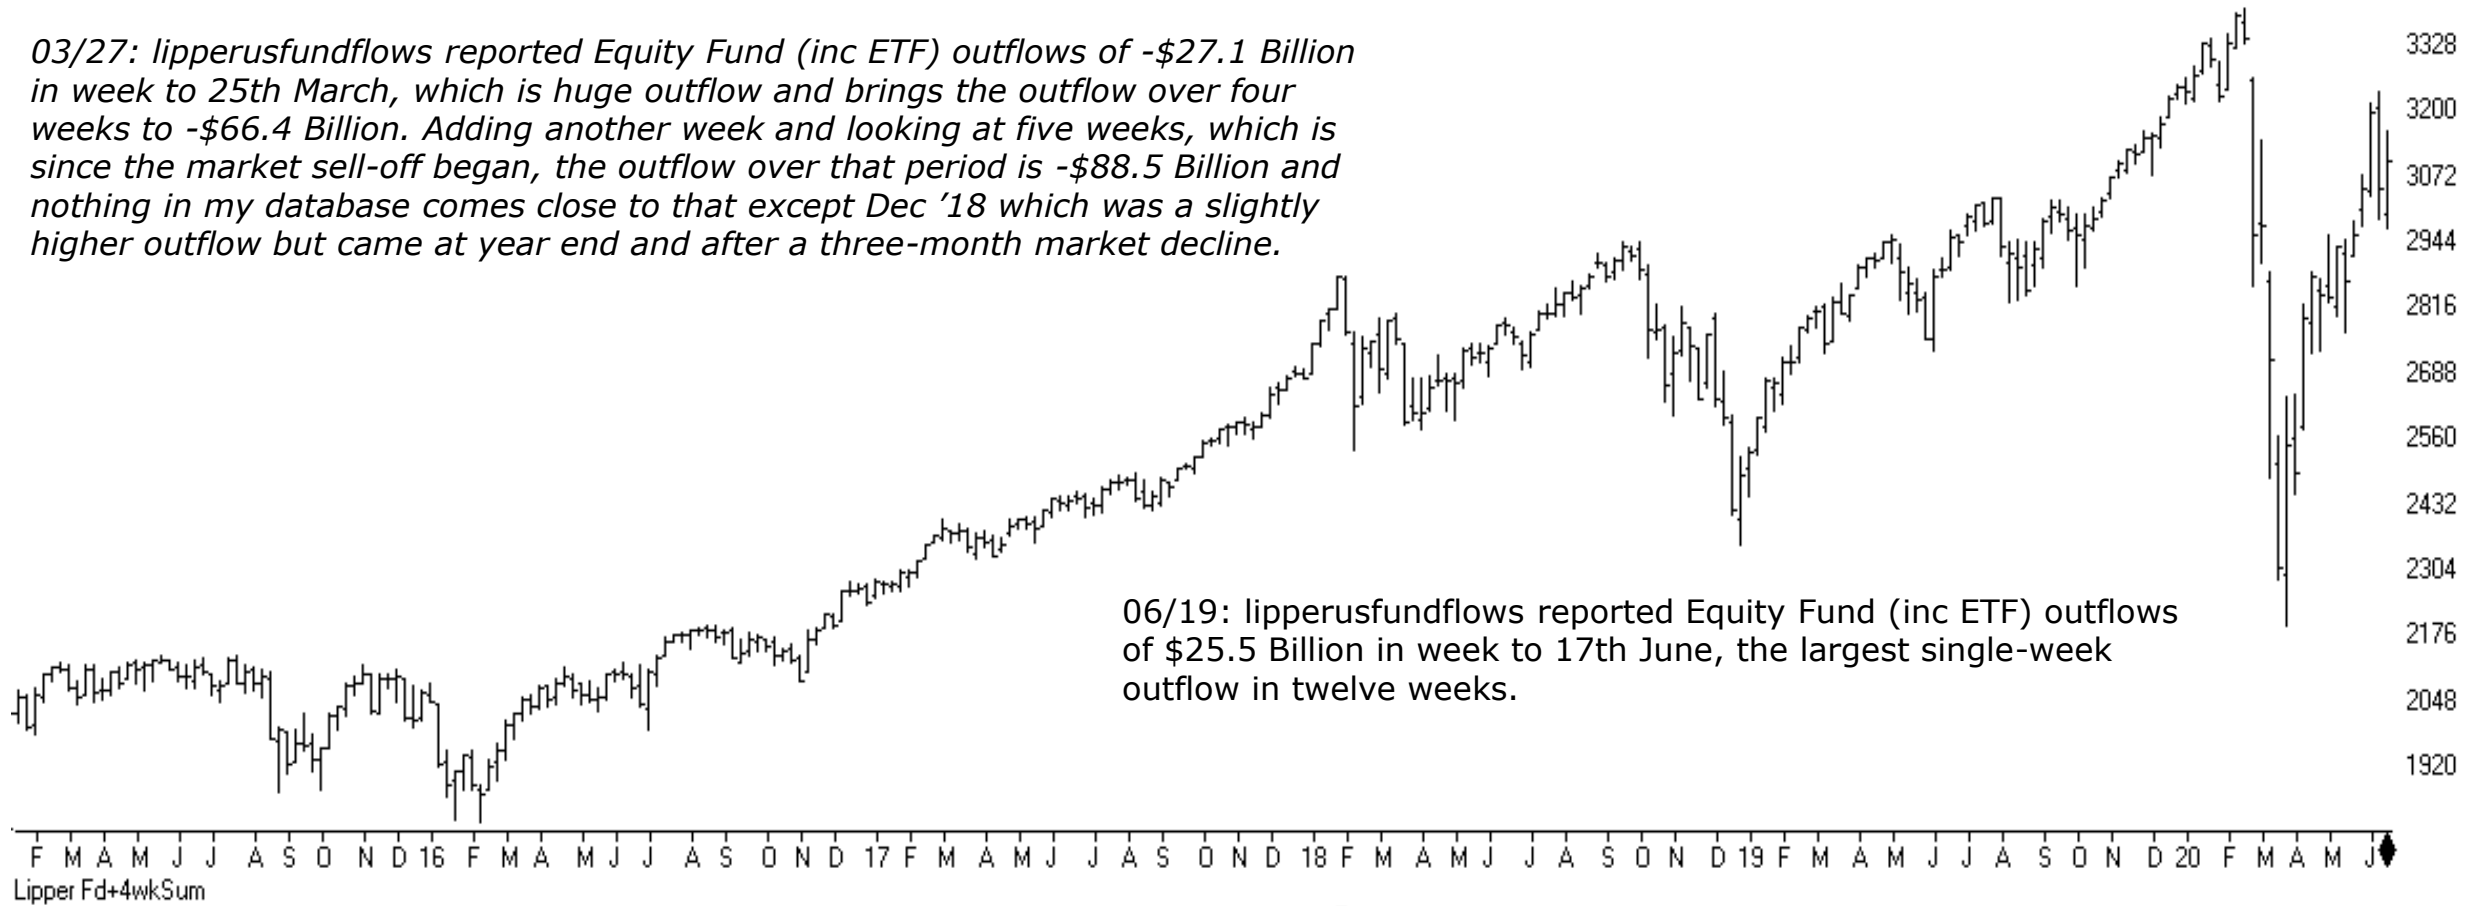

VIX - S&P 500 Volatility Index (Daily)

03/20: VIX reached a record close of 82.69 on 03/16.

03/27: lipperusfundflows reported Equity Fund (inc ETF) outflows of $-$27.1$ Billion in week to 25th March, which is huge outflow and brings the outflow over four weeks to $-$66.4$ Billion. Adding another week and looking at five weeks, which is since the market sell-off began, the outflow over that period is $-$88.5$ Billion and nothing in my database comes close to that except Dec '18 which was a slightly higher outflow but came at year end and after a three-month market decline.

06/19: lipperusfundflows reported Equity Fund (inc ETF) outflows of $$25.5$ Billion in week to 17th June, the largest single-week outflow in twelve weeks.

SPX + Lipper Total Equity Fund Flow (inc ETF activity)

S&P 500

On 12/27 the index reached 28.62, the highest reading in my database. Only twice before has the ratio printed above 26. Once in Jan 2018 and the market sold-off quickly, and once in Aug 2018 after which the market traded sideways for a month and then sold-off.

06/19: My version of the Rydex Assets Ratio ended the week at 11.86. SPX has recovered more than 80% of its decline from this years high and the ratio less than 30% - this is a positive for the market. The ratio fell to 3.35 on 03/17, the lowest since early 2016. The ratio reached 28.62 on 12/27, the highest reading in my database.

RYDEX RATIO REVISED

04/09: The S&P has rallied strongly since the 03/23 low, the ratio has not. That's probably a positive.
